Reading

(13-16) Who said these sentences?

Arachne	Demeter	Apollo	Icarus
---------	---------	--------	--------

13. "Zeus told Hades that he could take Persephone." _____
Apollo
14. "I'm so excited! We will fly!" _____
Icarus
15. "I am much better at weaving than Athena." _____
Arachne
16. "My daughter is missing. Did you see what happened?" _____
Demeter

(17-18) Read and choose the correct answers.

Instead, she started to weave. Her tapestry looked so real. It seemed like you could step into it. Athena was impressed. But Arachne's tapestry showed disrespect for the gods. There was Zeus, tricking women into loving him. Dionysus was a stumbling drunk. Even Apollo was pictured as a dirty shepherd. Athena became very angry. She _____ Arachne's tapestry to shreds. Then, Arachne realized her foolishness. "Please forgive me," she said. Athena said, "You love to weave. I will change you into a spider. You may weave your beautiful tapestries in nature. Everyone will see them and wonder at their beauty."

17. Which word is appropriate for the blank?

- ① made ② looked ③ wove ④ tore

18. What did Athena turn Arachne into?

- ① a butterfly ② a spider ③ a snake ④ a bird

(19-20) Read and choose the correct answers.

Now Demeter was furious. "Tell Hades to give me back my daughter!" she yelled at Zeus. "Or no food will ever grow again." Zeus was worried. He knew Hades was lonely in the underworld. But with no food, everyone would die. Zeus sent Hermes, the messenger, to the underworld to bring Persephone back. But Hermes arrived just as Persephone ate six seeds of a pomegranate. Anyone who ate food in the underworld had to stay there forever. But Hades made a deal with Hermes. "Persephone ate only six seeds," said Hades. "So she can visit the upper world for six months. Then, she must (A) return to me for the next six months." This is why plants die in autumn and winter and grow again in spring and summer.

19. Choose the one with the same meaning as (A).

- ① come back ② grow up ③ call ④ go away

20. What did Persephone eat in the underworld?

- ① some vegetables ② some seeds
③ some meat ④ some eggs

(21-22) Read and choose the correct answers.

"But if we fly too high, the sun's heat will melt the wax. Then, the feathers will fall off our wings." "I got it, Father!" cried Icarus. "Don't fly too high, and don't fly too low." Father and son jumped off a cliff and began flying over the ocean. Icarus was amazed at his ability to fly. He flew here and there. He wanted to see everything. He swooped down to look at the waves. He flew _____ to get a better view. "Too high, my son, too high!" yelled Daedalus. But it was too late. The feathers came off, and down fell Icarus. Daedalus could only watch in horror.

21. Which word is appropriate for the blank?

- ① high ② low ③ long ④ fast

22. Why did Daedalus fall into the ocean?

- ① He fell off a cliff into the water.
② He became too tired to fly.
③ The sun's heat melted the wax.
④ He flew too close to the water.
