(17-18) Read and choose the correct answers.

But then the Giant came home. He was away for seven years. When he came home, he was not happy to see the children. In a very deep, gruff voice, he said, "Who is playing in my garden? You do not have permission!" The children were afraid and ran away. The Giant didn't want the children to come back. He was a very selfish giant. He built a (A) high wall around the garden. On the outside, he put up a large sign. It read: NO TRESPASSING. It meant that nobody could come in. Autumn passed, and winter came. The garden was silent and covered in snow.

17. Choose the one with the opposite meaning as (A).

- ① tall ② strong ③ low ④ long

18. What did the children do?

- ① They played with the giant. ② They ran away.
③ They stayed in the garden. ④ They went home.

(19-20) Read and choose the correct answers.

The next morning, the Otis family talked about the ghost. "I do not wish to harm the ghost," said Mr. Otis. He looked at his twin boys, the youngest in the family. "So you should not throw pillows at him." The twins burst out in laughter. "But he came into our room first. It was fun," they said. "On the other hand," said Mr. Otis. "He did not (A) accept my gift. He really should use the oil on his chains. I don't want to take the chains away from him by force. But it is impossible to sleep with all that noise!" Mrs. Otis strongly agreed with her husband.

19. Choose the one with the same meaning as (A).

- ① give ② buy ③ receive ④ open

20. What did the twins do to the ghost?

- ① They took his chains away. ② They oiled his chains.
③ They threw pillows at him. ④ They spoke with him.

(21-22) Read and choose the correct answers.

"A flower?" laughed the green lizard. "That's (A) ridiculous!" But the nightingale didn't think it was silly. She thought long and hard about the mystery of love. "I will find a red rose for this young lover," she thought. She flew to a nearby rose bush. "Give me a red rose," said the nightingale. "And I will sing you a sweet song." "My roses are white as snow," said the bush. "Fly to my brother around the corner." The nightingale asked the rose bush around the corner. "My roses are red," said the bush. "But I am too weak to grow any more. There is a way. But it is terrible. I can't tell you."

21. Choose the one with the same meaning as (A).

- ☒ ① silly ☐ ② great ☐ ③ wonderful ☐ ④ amazing

22. What color are the first rose bush's roses?

- ☐ ① red ☐ ② yellow ☐ ③ pink ☒ ④ white
